Celebrate Dec. 7 CO Gives Day With YouthZone!

"One of the most gratifying feelings in your world can come from giving, whether it is a simple act of kindness or supporting an important cause. Although philanthropy is often associated with great wealth, all of us with the desire to promote the welfare of others are philanthropists. All that is needed is a concern for the community and the ability to provide any level of support." READ MORE

Youth Art Exhibit: Deconstructing the Self Portrait Open Now - Nov. 19

Anderson Ranch Arts Center is now proudly exhibiting a series of paintings created by local youth. The collection is called "Deconstructing the Self Portrait" and combines skills like photography and painting to help kids reflect and portray their own image in a creative way. The paintings were created throughout the month of October at the Glenwood Springs YouthZone office and are now on display at the Paton-Malott Gallery.
