Tina Olson was featured in YouthZone's monthly Post Independent column discussing the difficulties of parenting and normal behaviors of adolescences.

"No matter what your child raising situation or relationship, you will have trying times as a parent and that is OK and it is normal... Our world is ever evolving and sometimes we need help... There is no shame in asking for help." - Tina Olson

Ascent Film Festival Silent Auction Winners Dine in Style

Last year's Ascent Film Festival silent auction winners enjoyed a delicious home dining experience with Chef Jonathan Baiardo.

A four course meal with wine pairing was just the beginning, because these winners made a difference in the lives of youth through their generous silent auction contribution. Chef Baiardo donated his time and expertise to YouthZone's cause as well.

Thank you for supporting our community in your own way!
